HIGHWAYMEN AND HOUSE BREAKERS BUSY IN PADUCAH

Desperate Assaults and Robberies Numerous Saturday Night on Streets.

One House Entered Early Sunday Night.

POLICE WARN THE CITIZENS

Paducahans are warned by the police to take every precaution against highwaymen, burglars and thieves, who have been active in the city for the past few days and nights. Several highway robberies have been reported to the police Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, while many residences have been entered by expert burglars, none of whom have been captured. They are working quietly and break in and escape with their booty long before their deeds have been discovered.

Chief of Police James Collins fears much plundering and hold-ups this winter and says they have begun their work early in the fall. All paducahans have been cautioned to watch out for all suspicious characters.

Bold Burglary.

A bold burglar ransacked the residence of Mrs. W. E. Smith, 336 North Sixteenth street, last night and escaped unseen with several dollars in money. The thief probably was watching the house, when Mrs. Smith left home for a visit to one of her neighbors. Taking advantage of the opportunity, the thief secured a shovel from the coal house and prying open the rear window and door entered the house. Going upstairs he closed the blinds of the windows and turned on the light, which was left burning. Mrs. Smith returned home about 8 o'clock to find the house empty and things scattered over the floor. Two small children's trunks containing many pennies, were gone, a $2-caliber Smith & Wesson improved revolver, a $2 bill, several Lincoln pennies and a collection of Chinese coins were also missing. The police have no clue. The robbery is supposed to have been committed about 8 o'clock.

Knocked Down and Robbed.

Knocked in the head by two unknown men, William Cox, 917 North Sixth street, was robbed of $3 in money and even robbed of his shoes late Saturday night. He received three blows on the left side of his head and he was unconscious for more than two hours, but wandered home, where he is confined to his bed as the result of the experience.

Cox is an employee of the Paducah Pottery company, and was on route home Saturday night about 11 o'clock. On Floyd street between Sixth and Seventh streets he walked across a vacant lot in order to reach his home more quickly. When he reached the lot two men suddenly jumped up before him and struck him a blow on the left side of the head. He fell and before he could recover two more blows were dealt, and Cox sank down unconscious.

With their victim prostrate the two men robbed him of $3 and took his shoes. About 2 o'clock Cox recovered but was still dazed and wandered around the vicinity about an hour before he found his home, which was about a square distant from the home-up.

Cox was weak. Dr. Adair Hoyer was called and he thought yesterday the sight of Cox's left eye would be injured permanently, but today he was feeling easier, and his injuries are not considered so serious. However, Cox will not be able to be out before two weeks.

Due to the suddenness with which they loomed up before him, Cox was unable to give the police any description of his assailants.

Assaulted and Robbed.

On Saturday night in the "gun section" it is alleged by Charlie Haybeck colored, one of the most desperate characters in the city. He was caught a short time later by the police and in police court this morning the case was continued until Wednesday. Ashby was walking along the street when Haybeck approached him and said he had directed him to a house. Haybeck is accused of striking Ashby over the head and rifling his pockets.

Put Assault to Flight.

Robert Kyle, a brawny blacksmith, employed by Ed Morgan, put to flight an unknown person Saturday night, who commanded him to throw up his hands, at Eleventh and Jackson streets. Kyle was on his way to the Union station to catch a train for Dawson Springs to visit his wife. Being unable to secure a cab, he walked. When he reached Eleventh and Jackson streets the highwayman

President Taft Arrives Today at St. Louis and Will Leave Tonight on His Trip Down the Mississippi

Still Hoarse He Smiles Silent Return to Cheers at Railroad Station--His Addresses Will Be Limited.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—President Taft arrived today from Dallas and smiled a silent greeting to the crowds at the station. He is very hoarse and his speeches probably will be cut to five minutes. He took breakfast at the St. Louis club with the Business Men's League. He was then taken to the Coliseum, where he made the first speech of the day.

After breakfast he went to the Coliseum and spoke to 12,000 people on the subject of conservation, saying that although all has not been saved properly heretofore, hereafter it would be.

He said conservation of forests is as important as waterways conservation, because there will be no rain unless there are forests. It is a well known scientific fact.

While Taft is here other dignitaries are participating in the exercises in East St. Louis. Speaker Cannon, Vice President Sherman, senators and congressmen are there.

The entire party boarded the steam boats late today while thousands lined the river bank, and proceeded on their way down to the waterways congress at New Orleans.

Hundreds of congressmen, senators, governors, cabinet members, mayors and delegates to the convention of waterways, and representatives of commercial organizations are aboard the boats. They go in single file, the president, bearing Taft, leading.

He will be the guest at dinner by the governors aboard the steamer St. Paul tonight. The first stop will be at Cape Girardeau tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock. The later stops will be at Cairo, Ill., and Hickman, Ky.; October 27, at Memphis and Helena, Ark.; October 28, at Vicksburg, Miss.; October 29 at Natchez and Baton Rouge, La.

The first stop will be at Cape Girardeau, at 6 a. m., Tuesday, October 26. The fleet will wait there until 7 o'clock. The later stops will be at Cairo, Ill., and Hickman, Ky.; October 27, at Memphis and Helena, Ark.; October 28, at Vicksburg, Miss.; October 29 at Natchez and Baton Rouge, La.

When President Taft reached St. Louis at 7:30 this morning he had covered 2,700 of the 13,000 miles in his itinerary. The journey will consume 1,165 more. He is scheduled to arrive in Washington the night of November 10.

Taft's voice showed little improvement and after a few short addresses in Texas and Arkansas, was almost completely gone.

A presidential baggage car at Hempstead, Texas, was found to be missing, crate and all, when the president suggested that the Hempstead gift should have a place of honor at the president's dining car last evening.

The mystery of the disappearance has not yet been solved, but as another "possum" all dressed for cooking, was put aboard the train at Longview, Texas, the "possum dinner" was not postponed.

At Texarkana, where the train halted, partly in Texas and partly in Arkansas, a delegation of sixty citizens of Arkansas, headed by Governor Donaghy, General Powell Clayton, United States Senator Clarke and others, met the president.

A big crowd was at the station, but the president's voice was so hoarse that he could say a word or two in appreciation of the welcome. The train reached Little Rock at 8 p. m. and left for St. Louis ten minutes later.

At Terrell, Texas, the president addressed a throng of Sunday school children impressing on them the lessons of loyalty to the flag of state and nation and told them he hoped all would not, as they grew older, rush to the cities.

"I hope that the developments of the comforts of country life are such that we may look forward now to the lessening of the movement toward the large cities."

He said: "The place for us to accomplish things is in the country."

He stepped from a shadow and told him to throw up his hands. Kyle jerked a knife from his pocket and slashed his assailant on the left cheek and shoulder, but was unable to identify him. The highwayman turned and fled.

Cook Is Assaulted.

Nannie Smith, colored, cook for Mrs. H. H. Scott, at Eighth and Madison streets, was brutally assaulted by an unknown negro Saturday night about 8 o'clock, just as she left the Scott residence for her home. As she was passing the mouth of the alley back of the house, a man leaped out and struck her two stunning blows, one over the top of her head and the other over her nose. City Physician Hines, who dressed the injuries, found that her nose had been fractured. The assailant dashed off across Eighth street and disappeared in the alley leading to the Hardy Buggy works, at Ninth and Harrison streets.

REGISTRATION.

Up to noon today the Democrats lead in the special registration. Thirteen voters registered, and ten of them were Democrats. The county clerk's office will be open Tuesday and Wednesday as the last chance for voters who were ill or out of the city, to register in order to vote November 2.

All Is Ready.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—Governors, United States senators and congressmen and foreign diplomats arrived here last night to board the steamboats to make the trip on the Mississippi river to New Orleans to attend the Lakes-to-the-Gulf deep waterway convention, beginning October 30.

The "Oleander," the government lightship tender, on which President Taft will travel, was made a floating white house. Everything the president will need after he embarks for the four and a half days trip was placed on board.

The first stop will be at Cape Girardeau, at 6 a. m., Tuesday, October 26. The fleet will wait there until 7 o'clock. The later stops will be at Cairo, Ill., and Hickman, Ky.; October 27, at Memphis and Helena, Ark.; October 28, at Vicksburg, Miss.; October 29 at Natchez and Baton Rouge, La.

BARRY GETS TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

Interest in the fight of the Anti-Saloon league to keep the name of W. V. Eaton from under the Democratic device took a turn today when it developed that Circuit Judge R. J. Hugg, of the Carlisle circuit court, entered an order temporarily restraining the county court clerks of McCracken, Marshall, Carlisle and Ballard counties from placing on the ballot the name of W. V. Eaton, as the Democratic candidate for state senator in the Second senatorial district. The hearing is set for Wednesday.

Copies of the order reached Paducah today, and were placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers for service. He served the papers on County Court Clerk E. G. Boone this afternoon. Mr. W. V. Eaton was in Vicksburg today, but the order will be served on him tonight when he returns. The order restrains the following county court clerks: E. G. Boone, of McCracken county; Thomas J. Neely, of Ballard county; J. W. Henson, of Marshall county; and R. O. Williamson, of Carlisle county. Elias Harry is the plaintiff in the case. His name goes on the ballot by petition.

In the case of Joseph Ruggdale to remove the name of Eugene Graves from under the Democratic device Circuit Judge William Reed refused to grant the order.

FEEBLE OLD MAN WAS GIVEN "PUNISHMENT"

A pitiful spectacle was witnessed on the road to the county almshouse this morning, when a man of the name of Johnson, 80 years old and feeble, was found by the side of the public road weeping. A kind woman was kneeling over him, when Mr. Victor Woelfz, of the St. John's neighborhood, drove by. He stopped and another man aided him in placing Johnson in the wagon, and the stricken man was carried to the street car line, where he was placed on the car, the lady having given him ten cents for his car fare. He said he has relatives in the city. Johnson said he was an inmate of the county almshouse, and had been shut up in a room for punishment on account of a false accusation against him, and feeble and old as he was, he tried to escape from the institution.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON WILL TRY FOR CUP

New York, Oct. 25.—Sir Thomas Lipton, arrived aboard the Cedric today, looking fine. He says he will challenge for the American cup today.

JUDGE LURTON IS SUCCESSOR TO MR. JUSTICE PECKHAM

Tipped at Washington to be Promoted From District Bench.

Funeral of Great Jurist at Albany.

ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—Circuit Judge Horace H. Lurton, of Nashville, presiding over the Sixth federal judicial district, probably will be appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Peckham. If Lurton is not selected, it is believed that Lloyd W. Flowers, of Chicago, will get it. Bowers is solicitor general of the department of justice. President Taft has the highest regard for the legal attainments of these men, and privately has announced that he would like to see both on the supreme bench. If the occasion arose during his administration.

Funeral of Justice Peckham.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The funeral of Supreme Justice Peckham will be held Wednesday afternoon at St. Peter's Episcopal church here. The body will arrive Wednesday morning and the burial will be in the rural cemetery. The pallbearers are not yet announced.

Justus William Peckham, jurist, was born in Albany, N. Y., November 8, 1838, youngest son of Hon. Rufus Wheeler (Judge of the court of appeals of New York) and Isabella A. (Lacey) Peckham. He attended school at the Albany Academy and later in Philadelphia. In 1856 he went to Europe for a year, and on returning studied law in the offices of his father and of Lyman Trevelin in Albany, La. 1857, and was admitted to the bar in 1859. On January 1, 1860, he formed a partnership with his father's partner, Mr. Tremaine, which continued up to the time of the death of the latter in 1878. Mr. Peckham was elected district attorney of Albany county in November, 1868, and served three years. It was during his term of office that the famous express robbery occurred on the railroad bridge at Albany, when the express messenger, Halpin, was left for dead in the car. The trial was one of the most exciting that ever took place in Albany county. It was conducted by District Attorney Peckham with indefatigable effort and rare ability, and resulted in a conviction. Mr. Peckham was one of the counsel for the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad company in its fight with the Erie Railroad company, controlled by Jay Gould and James Fisk, Jr. He also represented the attorney-general in many capital trials, and generally with success. Mr. Peckham was one of the representatives of his congressional district in the national convention held at St. Louis in 1876, and actively supported Mr. Tilden. In April, 1881, he was appointed corporation counsel of the city of Albany. From 1883 until 1886 he was justice of the supreme court of New York, when he was elected an associate justice of the court of appeals. In December, 1895, he was appointed associate justice of the United States supreme court at Washington, D. C. The degree of LL.D. was conferred upon him by Columbia in 1901. In 1866 he was married to Harriette M., daughter of D. H. Arnold, of New York, and has two sons.

About this time Colonel Singleton drifted away from the Republican party and became a mugwump. With a few friends they organized a Tammany club, composed of Independent Democrats, but the club was short lived. During two campaigns for mayor, Colonel Singleton was an ardent supporter of D. A. Yelzer, who was running on the Independent ticket. As late as 1896 Colonel Singleton was an admirer of John Young Brown, who bolted from Wm. Goebel as governor.

However, since that Colonel Singleton has been a full fledged Democrat.

The Weather

Another heavy frost fell last night, probably the heaviest this fall. Illinois: Washington, Oct. 25.—Increasing cloudiness with showers Monday or Tuesday; warmer Monday.

MR. FOWLER WOULD DEBATE ON BANK

REITERATES HIS CHALLENGE TO SENATOR ALDRICH TO MEET HIM ON STUMP.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Congressman Charles S. Fowler, of New Jersey, today reiterated his statement that he would like to meet Senator Aldrich in debate on the central bank. He said the central bank would benefit only special interests and injure the best interest of the public. By buildings were thrown from their

Col. Gus Singleton Has Seen Much Service as Democrat, Republican and Independent Around Paducah

Carried Colored Precinct Convention Over Tom Burchett Back in Days When Genial Gus Supported Harrison.

Old time Democrats are smiling at the efforts of Col. Gus G. Singleton, Democratic nominee for county clerk, to line up the voters straight for the ticket. With one of his broad smiles and a pat on the back, Colonel Singleton impresses upon the younger generation of Democrats the necessity of standing by party lines and not to scratch.

This is the amusing part to the old time Democrats, who recall with distinct memory how Col. Singleton became a member of the Democratic party a few years ago, and now is such an ardent advocate of the straight Democratic party when it means an office for him. Recently some Democrats were discussing the colonel's record, how he changed from Republican to mugwump Democrat and then allied himself with the Democratic party.

In 1883 Col. Singleton was the campaign manager for J. R. Smith, father of Mayor James P. Smith, and the Republican nominee for mayor against Charles Reed, the Democratic nominee. For ten years it is stated that Col. Singleton opposed the election of every Democratic nominee. In 1885 Colonel Singleton served in the council as a Republican, having defeated the late Sol C. Vaughan, the Democratic nominee, for the place. In order to become eligible for the council it was necessary to be a property owner, and February 25, 1885, Colonel Singleton purchased a lot on Harris street between Fifth and Sixth streets.

In 1888 prominent Republicans, including Colonel Singleton, organized the Harrison club, an organization to further the local interest of President Harrison. The organization included Captain Ed Farley, Gus G. Singleton, J. R. Puryear, Frank Fisher, T. D. Harris, W. M. Kears, W. A. Lawrence, Turner Anderson and the late J. R. Smith and J. E. Williamson. Colonel Singleton was an active worker for the club. About the same time old Democrats recall that Singleton was a candidate for the Republican nomination for city marshal, and opposed to him was Tom Burchett. Out in Frenchtown, where only a few white Republicans remained Col. Singleton carried a precinct convention over Burchett.

About this time Colonel Singleton drifted away from the Republican party and became a mugwump. With a few friends they organized a Tammany club, composed of Independent Democrats, but the club was short lived. During two campaigns for mayor, Colonel Singleton was an ardent supporter of D. A. Yelzer, who was running on the Independent ticket. As late as 1896 Colonel Singleton was an admirer of John Young Brown, who bolted from Wm. Goebel as governor.

However, since that Colonel Singleton has been a full fledged Democrat.

Much interest is felt here in the celebrations and hundreds of curious spectators will go down to see the president and the parade of steamboats that will make the trip from St. Louis to New Orleans. The procession left St. Louis this morning and will be in Cairo tomorrow morning.

WEST TO BED WITH PIPES IN THEIR MOUTHS—FIRE.

Several men going to bed with pipes in their mouths resulted in bed clothing catching fire at the boarding house of Mrs. Smith, 215 North Third street, last night about 8:15 o'clock. Coals from the pipe set the bed clothing on fire but the sleepers awoke in time to avoid being burned. House company, No. 1, and truck company, No. 1, answered the alarm, and extinguished the fire which did only a few dollars damage.

KENTUCKY'S SOLDIERS ON WAY TO HICKMAN

They claim the distinction of being the best drilled company in the state militia, and their appearance here this morning showed that this is no idle boast.

Mr. J. H. Spalding, of Hinkleville Road, Testifies to Its Wonderful Merits.

Mr. J. H. Spalding, one of the best known residents of the county, living on the Hinkleville road, suffered for a long time with kidney trouble, had pains in his back and sides; stomach was out of order and he could not enjoy a good night's rest for a long time. He used a great many treatments of various kinds but received little or no benefit. He was of the opinion that nothing could help him at all. After noting the cures being made by Quaker in cases similar to his he finally called on Fisher, the Quaker Health Teacher, at McPherson's drug store and purchased a treatment of the Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm. He has now used them less than two weeks and today told Fisher that he has received more benefit from their use than from any other remedy he has used during the time he was suffering from his ailment.

To use his own words: "The Quaker remedies are simply wonderful for their curative powers and for the quick relief they give in such cases as mine. I can consistently recommend them to my friends and the public as the best they can use." For any case of Rheumatism, Catarrh in any form, Kidney, Liver, Stomach and Blood Troubles, Quaker Extract is a positive cure. Fisher wants any sufferer to call and talk with him—it costs nothing. He is at McPherson's drug store, Fourth and Broadway, from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily. If you cannot call the remedies are sent prepaid on receipt of price. Quaker Herb Extract, $1.00, three for $2.50; Oil of Balm, 25c. Fisher proves what he says.

BAPTIST REVIVAL AT FIRST CHURCH

OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY WITH THREE CONVERSIONS.

Business Men's Prayer Meeting Will Be Conducted Every Day at Noon Hour.

"SELF OR CHRIST, WHICH?"

With three additions to the church the revival began yesterday morning at the First Baptist church and it will continue for two weeks with services every evening. At both services yesterday the church was crowded to its capacity, and every service promises to be attended by large congregations. The pastor, the Rev. M. E. Dodd, will lead the meeting as he was unable to secure an assistant, and for this reason no afternoon meeting will be held.

Every day at noon from 12:10 to 12:30 o'clock a business men's prayer meeting will be held, and a large attendance is expected. The services will be of especial interest to the men of the congregation. Yesterday morning Mr. Dodd discussed "Self or Christ, Which?" It was an evangelistic sermon, and at the conclusion there were two additions. In the evening he preached on "Human Responsibility," which was a splendid sermon. Dr. Dodd took up the discussion of the responsibility of men for their salvation, and said the more educated the more responsible. He said that a lack of knowledge of the law of God is an excuse for salvation as it has been placed so that everybody may obtain knowledge of the law of God. Special music will be a feature of every service, and a choir will lead the songs from the new books secured for the revival. The noon hour service will be held in the lecture room of the church.

Important Subjects for Discussion at 21st Annual Convention of the National Association.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The twenty-first annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, which will be held in this city, beginning November 16, is likely to be the most important in the history of the organization. In the early years of the association and prior to the passage of the Hepburn amendment, the convention amounted to little more than reunions, with a long junket at the expense of the railroads thrown in. Since the passage of the Hepburn amendment, which galvanized the interstate commerce commission into forceful life, and since the passage of many state laws giving state commissions greater regulating power, the national organization has assumed an important place in the railway life.

Problems to Be Considered.
The reports which its committees make are awaited with considerable interest by the railroad management and by legislators, both state and national. This year the association has a most vital list of problems before it; and its reports are being carefully prepared with the view to giving them the force and the influence they should exert. Among the subjects which are to be carefully considered are the following: "Power, Duties and Work of the State Railway Commissions;" "Legislation, Amendment of the Act to Regulate Commerce;" "Uniform Classification;" "Rates and Rate-Making;" "Car Service and Demurrage;" "Railroad Taxes and Plans for the Ascertainment of the Fair Value of Railroad Property;" "Railway Capitalization;" "Railroad Statistics;" "Construction and Operating Expenses of Electric Railways;" "Safety Appliances;" "Delays in Enforcing Orders of Railroad Commissions;" "Grade Crossings;" and "Trespassing on Railroads."

The Death Roll.
The committee on grade crossings has prepared an exhaustive report, which is signed by William J. Wood, commissioner of Indiana, as chairman. The committee strongly advocates the abolition of all grade crossings in the United States and urges all the state commissions to take the matter up at once. Interesting statistics are given relative to the slaughter and maiming of human beings on grade crossings, and it is declared to be the crowning disgrace of the present age. The committee, however, does not advocate mandatory legislation, which will compel the railroads to eliminate all their grade crossings at once, irrespective of the expense. On the other hand, it is urged that each state commission take the matter up with a view to working it out as it seems best, in view of the conditions which pertain in each particular state.

Strangely enough, the committee does not advocate the railroads paying all the expenses, but it is believed to be equitable that the municipalities, the state and the county organizations should bear a portion of the expenses.

STAR VAUDEVILLE THEATRE

Program for Week of October 25

Every Act a Big Feature Act

All New, Clean, Refined, Moral and Up-to-Date

CLEMENTS and LEE

In their great comedy sketch, "IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE," or A Woman of Very Few Words. It is a semi-dramatic playlet that keeps the house in an uproar. Its comic lines are so subtle that you laugh all the way home. It comes back to you and you fully appreciate the high class work of the team after leaving the theatre. The work of both is meritorious. Their stage appearance is fine, manners easy and graceful; Especial mention is due Mrs. Lee, who portrays the jealous wife, suspecting her husband of all sorts of infidelity and proceeds to begin a 16-minute tirade against her spouse, who cannot get a word in edgewise. The finale is a whirlwind finish against mankind in general. It is an uproar from start to finish.

Daily Thought.

No man has any better world before him than he is seeking to make about him.

If there is anything in a name,

Pearcy's threat to expose Kaud Rasmussen, is futile.

Really, President Taft's visit to western Kentucky wasn't timed to have any influence in the race in Mc-Cracken county.

Editor Denny H. Goode, of the "Focus," manifests an unfortunate penchant for getting too much into the focus himself.

can appear today, Tuesday or Wednesday before the county clerk and

To show the influence of the rural press, the following clipping is going the rounds:

"Owing to the overcrowded condition of our columns, a number of births and deaths are unavoidably postponed this week."

It was a long time to wait, but the Murray Ledger is having a lot of fun out of the present campaign.

praised Walter Krone. Now, that less than the full amount, allowed the company five per cent besides, and did not charge it with the penalty and interest for the time Smedley used the county's funds. The suit of Barkley was filed after it was too late to get it to trial before the election, and attorneys for the bonding company declare there is nothing in the suit, and question whether it even ever will be tried.

The receipt given by McCracken county to the bonding company, covering the settlement of Hiram Smedley's alleged shortages, should reflect much light on the controversy as to whether or not the compromise, which Mr. Barkley made with the company, is in full or only partial, and Mr. Barkley should produce a copy of it.

If Mr. Barkley had followed the injunction of St. Paul to "avoid the appearance of evil," he would have spared himself much trouble if he is tight and the bonding company is wrong in the contention; for it must be kept in mind, that this is not a controversy between Mr. Barkley and Mr. Hazell—for dien it might be attributed to politics—but between Mr. Barkley and the bonding company, which he has sued. The bonding company, which gave a blanket bond, covering all possible shortages, contends that Mr. Barkley's settlement for less than the full amount, is final, and the receipt will show it.

There are circumstances surrounding the transaction, of which the public is bound to take notice. Obviously for the purpose of preventing State Auditor's Agent W. H. Husbands, who discovered the shortages, including the county's shortage in his suit for the state, the fiscal court authorized Mr. Barkley to SETTLE for the county. Mark the difference in procedure between Mr. Husbands and Mr. Barkley.

Mr. Husbands, representing the state, offered no compromise and accepted none. HE BROUGHT SUIT, AND AS HE DISCOVERED NEW DEFICIENCIES, AMENDED HIS PETITION.

Mr. Barkley, before an expert had examined the books, settled with the company, and the company says, settled in full. The fiscal court ratified that settlement. Later Mr. Barkley instituted suit against the company to recover the balance, but the suit was filed too late to get a trial before the election.

Now, in all fairness to the intelligence of those well advised gentlemen, who manage the bonding company, we ask an unprejudiced public mind, if it is likely that the bonding company would make a partial settlement with the county, and remain liable for any indefinite amount to be determined by subsequent inspection of the books? Those bonding company gentlemen are intelligent, not to say quite nifty at their trade, and while never denouncing at the strict letter of their obligation, are always ready to escape at a less figure, and possessed of an intimate knowledge of a multitude of ways of settling little matters like the Smedley shortage on a mutually agreeable basis.

Mr. Barkley may have been led into a trap by the bonding company; but his political experience has availed him little, if he did not realize that settlement out of court of public matters is always attended with the hazard of misinterpretation and misconception. Mr. Barkley may have been too foxy for the bonding company and its attorneys; but in the absence of proof to the contrary, we pin our faith to the strategy of the bonding company.

SCRATCHING IN LYON.

The following extracts from the editorial columns of the Lyon County Times would indicate prospects of considerable scratching in that balliwick:

"It is disgusting and contemptible to see a few Democrats for revenue only, going about now saying all manner of mean things about the present Democratic nominees. Some of these botching Democrats have held office in this county until their heads have grown gray, and now, when the people decide to retire them (for they would never retire voluntarily), they now feel called upon to destroy the very same party organization that honored them in the past."

"Some of the botching Democrats say Sike Hodges has not got the ability to perform the duties of county attorney. After electing Walter Krone to the office of county attorney, it does not seem like any one ought to question Hodges' ability. There has been no ability connected with the county attorney's office for four years. This being the case we are in a fair way to make an improvement."

"The graft that a few botching Democrats have been getting out of the county under the present administration has been corrupt and diabolical."

"It is a pity that the phrase law and order should be soiled by its use under the tongue of such corrupt ingrates and turncoats."

"What should honest people think of a Democrat who makes a race in a primary and then refuses to vote for the nominees? Such a thing is almost unrepeatable. Yet we have some of this very class here in Lyon?"

DEPUTY MARSHAL NEEL SERVES MANY SUMMONES.

After a week's trip through Lyon, Christian and Trigg counties, Elwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, returned Saturday night. He secured service on 25 defendants in the Toomy and Tucker damage suits, but many of the defendants are still on the dodge, and Marshal Neel was unable to find them. Dr. D. A. Auross was not at home although several trips were made.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Attorney Oscar Kahn had a pun on his name last week when an old fellow walked into the sheriff's office and inquired for the attorney's office, although he had forgotten his name. He managed to explain what attorney he wanted, and was directed to his office. A few minutes later a man who heard the conversation crossed the street and saw the old fellow standing in the hall. "Well, uncle, do you know who you want?" "Yes sir," he replied with a grin. "I believe I want to see Mistah 'Oscar Kahn.'"

Reminiscences of the Civil War were made fresh in the memory of Dr. John G. Brooks, a Confederate Veteran, when recently he was presented with two oil paintings, one of himself and one of the late Charles Reed, by Conrad Wise Chapman now of Hampton, Virginia, who was a member of Company D, of the Third Kentucky Regiment of Paducah, together with Dr. Brooks and Mr. Reed. The picture of Mr. Reed is painted on a piece of wood 4 1/2 x 12 1/2 inches, after a photograph of the deceased at the age of twelve. Dr. Brooks' picture is over two times larger and is a splendid likeness of him. The painting of Mr. Reed shows remarkable skill of the artist in miniature work and was presented to Mrs. Edmund P. Noble, daughter of Mr. Reed. Mr. Chapman is the son of a distinguished artist of Virginia, who married a daughter of Governor Wise, of Virginia, before the opening of the war. Some years later with their son, Conrad, they went to Italy, where the father studied. Conrad developed a remarkable talent for art and studied with his father. The family was still in Italy when the war broke out and Conrad made known his desire to return to the United States and join the Confederate army, as his father was a close friend of General Tighman. When Conrad came over General Tighman advised him to join the ranks of Company D, of the Third Kentucky regiment, which was in camp at Camp Boone. He joined and became a warm friend of Dr. Brooks and Mr. Reed. At times in camp Chapman made pencil sketches of the war and Dr. Brooks has several of these now. After the war Chapman returned to Italy and some years later went to Mexico, his life being largely that of an itinerant artist, but an excellent one. Leaving Mexico he returned to his old home in Virginia. A few months ago Mr. Chapman wrote Dr. Brooks, stating that he had in his possession a photograph of Mr. Reed, and asked Dr. Brooks to send a picture of himself, which the physician did. A few days ago Dr. Brooks received the two handsome paintings.

THE REV. G. W. BANKS GIVING SERIES.

Well Known Pastor and Church Builder Will Devote More Time to Platform Work.

An interesting feature of the alight services at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church, which has been attracting unusual crowds, is the series of lectures being delivered by the Rev. G. W. Banks, the pastor, who has quite a reputation over the Memphis conference for his ability as a raconteur. His series is "Travels Abroad." The first was on Rome, the second on Egypt. Last night he spoke on "10,000 Miles by Water." Next Sunday night he will speak on "Fablesthe on Horseback."

Mr. Banks has built as many if not more churches and parsonages than any other man in the conference, and his work in Paducah has been made notable by the establishment of a large church on Fountain avenue, the only pretentious office in the growing west end, an achievement now recognized as of strategic importance, as the center of population gradually shifts away from the heart of the city.

Mr. Banks has told his friends that hereafter he intends to devote much time and attention to platform work, something he loves next to and in connection with his ministry.

This year ends his pastorate in Paducah, and while an effort was early put on foot by the members of his church to retain him, it is uncertain whether he will return.

ALL SCHOOL ROOMS ARE OPEN AND WELL ATTENDED.

All the school rooms closed by the diphtheria scare were reopened this morning, and the public schools are running smoothly again. In the Washington school Miss Irma Yeiser and Miss Mabel Mitchell returned to their rooms with about a normal attendance. The room of Miss Clara Winston in the Franklin school was opened with Miss Lucy Moore in charge. Miss Winston will not resume teaching until next Wednesday. There are only a few cases of diphtheria in the city now, but the precautions will not be dropped and Dr. H. P. Sights, city health officer, is anxious that every case of sore throat be reported so that it may be examined.

Open Letter of J. D. Smith To Voters of McCracken Co.

Fellow Citizens:—For the past few weeks there has been considerable uneasiness in the political controversy in McCracken county, caused in part, at least, by the condition of the county's affairs, as shown by my recent investigation of the county records. While I cannot excuse and do not seek to inflame the passions heretofore allowed in the conduct of the county's business, I shall not attack individuals too severely for evils growing out of the miserable system, or want of system that has prevailed for many years in the keeping of county records and accounts, a condition that has largely prevailed throughout the state resulting in a loss to the state of $100,000. I have been told, in a shortage or misperception condition in one hundred and ten out of one hundred and nineteen counties of our state without regard to the political affiliation of the incumbents of the offices. This shows the importance of a safe system.

It matters not who may be elected to the office of county judge and county attorney, etc., a proper condition of county finances cannot exist without a proper system of accounting. I propose a system of accounting and of the establishment of a safe system of records and accounts. A proper knowledge of the county's affairs cannot be attained by the county judge and county attorney unless they are charged with the responsibility of the county's financial condition. The county clerk's office can furnish the full and most exact information as to the standing and condition of the county's records and accounts. These should be in a condition to stand the most searching inspection, and should be as complete and clear as it is possible to make them, so as to place before the taxpayers an information he can understand. He has a right to know where his money goes. Should I be elected, I promise to keep a regular set of books and ex-

ENLISTED TO PREVENT HAZELL GETTING A HEARING.

One of the "Choppers" Starts Stampede by Announcing It Is All Over.

Dirty politics is being played as a last effort to prevent the people from learning the truth about the court house going that has manipulated affairs of the county government. This was demonstrated Saturday afternoon at Rossington and again

At the Pleasant Ridge school house a crowd of young fellows started hazing Mr. Hazell when he arose, until it was necessary for a school trustee to remind the young men it was a public school house, and if they did not support Mr. Hazell it was their duty to remain quiet or leave the school house.

Tonight the last week of the whirlwind campaign will begin at the Tyler school house, and one of the largest audiences is expected, as with his facts and records of the present administration Mr. Hazell has stirred the people to the need of a change of the county administration. Both speakers are suffering with sore throats as the result of constant speaking. Tomorrow night the debaters will address the people at Rowlandtown.

ery year, if not every six months, put in pamphlet form an itemized statement showing how much is paid to every officer, committee or department and the exact cost of every road, bridge and county structure, showing how much is paid for material, supervision of the work, etc., just as would be required by a good, careful business establishment of any kind.

I regret that the brief time since the battling call upon me to enter the race has prevented me from making a house to house canvass to meet every voter, as I wished, but I have seen every one it has been possible for me to see, and I can confidently say that my prospects of election are most flattering. Democrats, Republicans, Independents, people of all parties, boldly say the time has come when men and not the political interests of professional office seekers should control our county affairs—particularly the finances.

I have been charged against me that I am out simply to defeat the Democratic party. That is not true. I will say I never voted for a Republican presidential candidate in my life. I was born and reared a Democrat and voted for William Jennings Bryan three times for president of the United States. But, notwithstanding my politics, for the last twelve years, in city and county affairs I have always voted for the man I thought best qualified for the office to be filled. So I am before you with no purpose to add or defeat any political party—but simply as a citizen responding to the call of citizens of all parties, feeling fully competent to deal with the present conditions of the office and its duties in the future. This is true though I have never held public office or before this time been a candidate for any office in the gift of the people.

How to Vote.

Now if you desire a man for the office of county clerk who will establish a system of accounting to protect the interests of the people and keep the public informed of the condition of accounts, regardless of politics, or political or factional influences, then stamp your vote for J. D. Smith, under the device of a pair of SCALES in the INDEPENDENT COLUMN. If you are a Democrat and wish to vote for me, but otherwise to vote for the Democratic candidates, simply stamp in the blank on the right hand side of my name and then under my name. If you are a Republican and wish to vote for me, first stamp your vote for me, then stamp in the blank on the right hand side of my name, then stamp under the log cabin, also if you wish to vote the "Free Republican" ticket, even the county clerk. The same rule applies to other parties. If you desire to scratch the ticket generally, then stamp on the right hand side of my name you desire to vote for.

Thinking yet in advance for all you may do for me I put for the best interest of the county.

Very respectfully,
J. D. Smith
County Commissioner

Saturday night at the Pleasant Ridge school house when Thomas N. Hazell and Abner W. Hazell, candidates for county judge, addressed the people.

At Rossington when Mr. Hazell arose for his reply a county official left the school house and somehow outside the school house yelled, "It's all over." Some of the audience left the school house, but the taxpayers and substantial citizens remained to hear how their money had been expended and for Mr. Hazell to show up how Mr. Barkley had failed to do his duty as county prosessor.

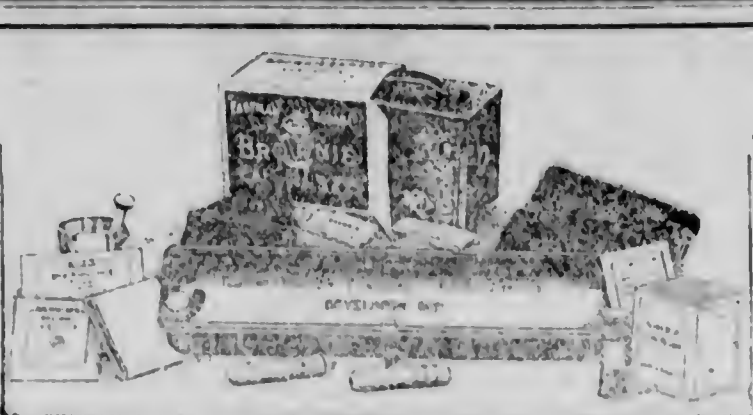

At the Pleasant Ridge school house a crowd of young fellows started hazing Mr. Hazell when he arose, until it was necessary for a school trustee to remind the young men it was a public school house, and if they did not support Mr. Hazell it was their duty to remain quiet or leave the school house.

How Often in a Day Do You Want to Know What Time It Is?

Just that often you have need of a watch. Don't depend on some one else for the time. Carry it with you. Don't depend on a clock. You can't carry it around.

Get a watch and be independent of other people and of place.

Did you ever price watches? Do you know how little money a good watch costs? I sell thoroughly good watches for a few dollars. I sell others, the very best watches manufactured, at higher prices, but to every watch I sell there is full value for every cent of the cost.

Come in today and look at my watches. You can't find elsewhere as complete lines of good, guaranteed watches for men and women anywhere else in town.

I would suggest an Elgin or a South Bend, but have other makes if you prefer.

AT THE CHURCHES

"The churches were first called to attention at Ash Grove was the revival which the Rev. B. C. Averett held his subject, "What Constitutes a Christian?" A Christian he said is someone who is to whom the persons of the Trinity are not just in the mind, but in the life. He said, "The Christian is one who has experienced a religious conversion, and the ethical definition of one who conforms to the standards of morality pronounced by Christ. None of these three is self-sufficient."

The services at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday were largely attended. The Rev. B. C. Averett held the morning service "The King's Highway" was especially interesting and instructive. The pastor told how people would become added to the church like the cars of the railroad and it was especially noticeable in people who moved from one town to another. The Men's Brotherhood will meet tonight at 7:30. The Ladies' Missionary society met this afternoon.

Two large congregations were present at the Broadway Methodist church and the Sunday school was also largely attended. Miss Mabel Shinton sang the evening offerings. There were two additions to the church at the morning hour. Miss Lyle was the subject of the morning offering. The board of stewards of the Broadway Methodist church will meet tonight at 7:30.

The services at the Third Street Methodist church, Guthrie avenue and Fifth street were all well attended yesterday and a big rally meeting will be held at these churches commencing Wednesday. Wednesday it will be held at Third street and Little's chapel and at Guthrie avenue Thursday evening.

There were no services at the German churches yesterday, as both the Rev. Mr. Grother an sturdy shirlings Rev. William Hourquin of the Evangelical and the Rev. Mr. Grother of the Lutheran were out of the city.

There were three baptisms by the North Twelfth Street Baptist church yesterday and a large attendance at both services. Tonight Brother Humphreys, president of the Orphans' Home at Louisville, will address the congregation.

The usual Sunday services were held at the Second Baptist church yesterday and both services were well attended.

In third place will be the Socialist ticket and in fourth place the Independent ticket, under the scales. In the fifth place will be the names of E. Barry and Joseph Hagedale, under the "horse's head." The ballots have been printed, and should the courts sustain the contention of Hagedale and Barry and order the removal of the names Eaton and Graves from the Democratic ticket, voters would be used.

HOMB PIOT TO DESTROY COUNTRY ATTORNEY PAID.

Lawton, Okla., Oct. 25.—A bomb intended to kill County Attorney J. A. Paine failed when F. H. Swank, deputy, entered the office today, and opening the door pulled a string, lighting a match intended to explode on the death trap. The fuse was attached to a pin metal shell, containing dynamite and nitro-glycerine. Inside the door. Two weeks ago Paine was threatened with death unless the present liquor prosecutions were dropped. The threat was anonymous. Authorities are puzzled and are hunting persons with little clew.

MEMPHIS POLICE SEEK AN ELUDED COUPLE.

A telephone message received from the police at Memphis, Tenn., this morning by Chief of Police James Reilly, of the local police force, asked the local authorities to look out for Harry Pike, a baseball player, who is alleged to have eloped from Memphis with a girl Saturday. Her name was not given. Pike, whose home is in Paducah, is the son of A. Pike, a stationery engineer at the local Illinois Central railroad shops. He is well known in this city. Pike and the girl are said to have boarded a north-bound train, presumably headed for Paducah.

"So Jageby said he quit courting 'Hes Pike because she gave him a 'delicate hint' that his attentions were unwelcome."

"Delicate hint! It was a very strong one."

"What was it?"

"She married the other fellow."

TORPEDO BOAT CAUGHT ON BAR

WILKES GOT OUT OF CHANNEL BEFORE ST. LOUIS.

Two in Cairo Harbor, Arriving Last Evening—Will Coal This Morning—Plan Was

TO LEAVE FOR MEMPHIS AT 10.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 25.—Two of the U. S. torpedo flotilla, the McDonough and Thornton, steamed into Cairo harbor shortly after 6 o'clock last evening. The entire fleet of four left St. Louis about 6 o'clock a. m. under the guidance of Capt. Henry Pardee and Capt. George Clark of Cairo, and Capt. M. J. Gibbons of New Orleans. The two named came through without any trouble, but one of the boats, the Wilkes, which was in the rear, got out of the channel a little at Kilmuck, 22 miles south of St. Louis, and got caught on a sand bar. The Tingey went to her assistance and the other two came through to Cairo.

The delayed boats had not been heard from at midnight and it could not be told whether the Wilkes got off or not. She does not draw as much water as the McDonough and there was enough water to permit the latter to cross all the low places without scraping much, there being about seven and a half feet.

The plan was to have the boats coal here this morning and leave about 10 a. m. for Memphis to await the president's fleet there. This plan may be changed if the Wilkes and Tingey do not come out in time this morning to be coaled.

There is plenty of water from Cairo south and no serious fall likely for some days.

Capt. Pardee and Capt. Clark came out with the two boats last night.

Caffeine—in coffee—is a direct poison to the nerve centres of many highly organized persons.

It produces all sorts of disorder, from stomach troubles, palpitation of the heart, kidney affection, etc., up to more intricate nervous troubles, such as paralysis.

The way to keep well is to leave off coffee and use Postum, which is a direct builder of the nerve centres.

"There's a Reason."

Sure and well defined improvement in health will follow this course, as can easily be proven by any person who values health enough to make a trial.

"The civic rally next Thursday evening at the Christian church under the auspices of the Citizens' Improvement association promises to be a most enthusiastic and interesting meeting."

One of the papers of that city in speaking of Mr. Patterson's address, says that as a speaker he is forceful and eloquent, his ideas are practical and his exposition of them entertaining."

Mr. Patterson, who makes his home with his sister, Mrs. George Flournoy, of this city, and is popular here, is winning honors in his lecture tour that are quite commensurate with his distinguished talents and ability. The Lexington Leader says Mr. Patterson is the following appreciation in nothing his lecture there:

"Mr. Patterson is among the most satisfactory of lecturers, although young, with pleasant voice, clear enunciation, a perfect accent and the power to make his subject spirited and interesting. He brought out more clearly all the essential points of art than any speaker the critics present had ever heard. His friends here are very much pleased to find him so successful as a lecturer since Lexington has a claim upon his name and fame from Lexington. Mr. Patterson goes to Mt. HYGIENIC DIET

People who prefer a vegetable diet to one of meat and who look for nutritious nourishment with variety find a most unusual food in Faust Brand Spaghetti.

So admirably does it lend itself to the making of endless tempting and nourishing dishes—whether for dinner or supper—that it has taken the place of meat even in many non-vegetarian homes.

Fast Spaghetti is a food to work on. Meats, blood, bone, muscle and energy—and, unlike meat, does it without taxing the digestion or overheating the blood.

Then consider the economy of it. At only five and ten cents a package it has no equal as a nourishing, sustaining food within reach of all.

And as to its adaptability—the book of recipes sent free on request merely suggests the endless number of ways of serving it—as a simple side dish, a sweet pudding, or as the best part of a substantial meal, and what is best of all, in such appetizing and tasty forms that it is always welcome.

Nelson Soule and Harry Berry, two young Paducah acrobats, have made good with Jack Mahara's minstrels and are now in Idaho with the troupe. They have adopted the name of Balthazar Brothers and joined six weeks ago at Cedar Rapids, Ia. Both are amateurs but rapidly becoming professionals and are wished much success by their many friends here.

Balthazar Brothers, including John and Louis Balthazar, brothers, and Tom Corbett, are probably the most clever young amateurs in the country. They did stunts at the Kentucky Saturday and only lack a trainer. The lads were somewhat disheartened when they found that Soule and Berry had adopted a similar name, but it is spelled differently, and the young boys hope to outclass the latter in time to come.

VICTORY ON HIGH SCHOOL'S BANNER

PERCHES THERE IN SATURDAY'S GAME.

Strong Hopkinsville Eleven Is Defeated By the Score of Ten to Six.

SATURDAY'S COLLEGE GAMES.

By hard playing the Paducah High school football team downed the fast Hopkinsville High school eleven Saturday afternoon by a score of 10 to 6. Not until the second half did the Paducah boys forge ahead, and it looked like a victory for Hopkinsville until desperate playing won out.

Hopkinsville started the scoring in the first half and in less than two minutes scored a touchdown. Paducah kicked off, and a line buck fumbled. Loosening up on a forward pass it. Meacham carried the ball for 55 yards and a touchdown. Goal was scored, but the High school warriors were undaunted, gritted their teeth and came back at Hopkinsville. Endress brought the ball within a few yards of goal, but a penalty took Paducah back. Hored under the difficulties the ball was returned to one yard of goal and Sills went over for a touchdown. Attempt at goal failed, leaving the score 6 to 5 in favor of Hopkinsville at the end of the first half.

The second half was filled with open play, and punts were resorted to frequently. Paducah worked hard, and forced Ogilvie over for a touchdown. Another try for goal failed.

AVOID HARSH DRUGS.

Many Catholics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not grip, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store—W. B. McPherson, Fourth and Broadway.

and the final score was 10 to 6. Highbad a heavier line than Hopkinsville, and line bucks were used to better advantage. Hopkinsville had a swift team, and had to be watched every moment of play lest a runner should get away with the pigskin on a trick. The Meacham boys, Cravens, Armstrong and Captain Dubney starred for Hopkinsville while Wilbelm, Endress, Epperhelmer, Browning, Yarbrough, Ogilvie and Sills worked best for Paducah although every man did splendid work. Cravens was the only man injured as he had a leg twisted in stopping rushes at the goal line. The officials were: Referee, Burns; umpire, Clark; timekeeper, Filbert and Breathitt.
